FEDERAL HEALTH CARE REFORM: WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Everyone is unhappy about health care, particularly health care costs, but not everyone realizes that a national health care reform bill is law, or what is in it. Research shows that many Americans don't even know that a reform bill has passed. Start by informing yourself about what is—and is not—in the bill, and then make it a point to talk to your friends and neighbors.

Some of what is included in the landmark Affordable Care Act:

- a guarantee that insurance companies can no longer discriminate based on pre-existing conditions
- an end to lifetime caps
- a requirement that insurance companies can no longer drop people when they get sick.

In addition, the bill:

- gives tax credits to small businesses for providing coverage for employees
- requires insurers to cover preventive care at no cost.

There is misinformation being circulated about the bill's effects on Medicare. Don't let the naysayers scare seniors!

- Medicare is actually being improved and strengthened.
- The Affordable Care Act attacks waste and fraud.
- The bill adds benefits for those on Medicare:
 - helps seniors stay in their homes
 - bans discrimination based on pre-existing conditions
 - provides preventive care with no co-pays.

Yes, there are taxes—but only for those with incomes over $200,000-$250,000. These taxes will provide for the largest investment in the health care workforce ever made. There is a huge need for primary health care providers, and the Affordable Care Act will help fill the gap by investing in education and training, and providing incentives for these desperately needed caregivers.

Finally, for those who advocate repealing the act: this is an even more costly choice than enacting it! Repealing the act would cost an estimated $455 billion.

What about California?

California is on the forefront of federal health care reform. This fall, the governor signed two bills creating the California Health Benefit Exchange. There are a number of challenges on the road to an operational exchange by 2014; the League will be active both in advocacy and community education. If you are interested in working on this issue, contact Helen Hutchison, hhutchison@lwvc.org.

President's Message

Dear League members:

"You're from the League of Women Voters? Can I have one of those buttons? What a great organization!" How can you not love being part of an organization that gets compliments like that at a local candidates' forum? I just wish we had enough money to give away the buttons! Special thanks to Ellen Dunbar and Marsha Waggoner who organized eight well attended forums ; to Mary Giventer and Ellen Dunbar for presenting the pros and cons of the ballot propositions before a large crowd at MJC; and to every single one of the volunteers listed on page 5. Thanks, also, to our faithful members and donors who through your dues, renewals and contributions help us educate and inform the voters.

Once again League members and donors enjoyed good company, good conversation, and good food at our Annual Holiday Fling. Special thanks to Lynn Fenderson for graciously opening her home, to Hanna Renning for overall coordination, to Margie Lipsky and Lynn Kelso for organizing the food, and to all the wonderful League cooks who provided the goodies. We were fortunate to hear from Lynn Dickerson, CEO of the Gallo Center for the Performing Arts, who touched all of us with her personal story and gave us an insider's look at the Center.

Now, we have other work ahead of us. What do you want to see on the agenda for our League and for Leagues across California for the next two years? As a member of this grassroots organization, you have the opportunity to influence the selection of issues where LWVC will focus time and resources. What about our local positions? What should be our advocacy priorities? Read more about how you can participate in program planning on pages 3 and 4.

January is also the month when the nominating committee meets to begin choosing a slate of officers and directors and to plan our Annual Meeting. Ellen Meyer, Nominating Committee Chair, welcomes your suggestions for the meeting location and speaker, and for members who may be interested in serving on the Board.

Margie Lipsky and Mildred Kinser have an interesting lineup of Lunch and Learn speakers. (page 3.) Hope you can join us!

Susan Novak President

Program Planning Meeting: State Issues

Please save the evening of Wednesday, January 26, 2011, 6:30 p.m., at the League Office, 720 13th Street, for our annual Program Planning meeting. It is important that as many members as possible take part in the discussion, so that we can forward meaningful ideas to the state League (LWVC). If you cannot attend the meeting, please be sure to fill out the enclosed flyer and return it ASAP.

Every two years, local Leagues participate in the LWVC Program Planning process by making recommendations concerning program issues. This is how we remain a grassroots organization. The Program Planning process is an important League tool for identifying issues for study. It gives members and Leagues the opportunity to balance the pros and cons, assess possible support, and consider the viability of issues.

While it is important for every League to hold a Program Planning meeting to discuss possible issues for study at the state level, it is not essential for every League to select an issue. The response form includes a line to indicate that issues were discussed but no change is recommended.

It will be up to all our participating members to take part in the discussion, in person at the meeting or by submitting the inserted form by February 7. Our board will consider the results of our member discussion and submissions at its February board meeting. The deadline for submitting the resulting response to LWVC is February 11, 2011

2010 Finance Drive

Thank you to everyone who has contributed to the Finance Drive. Your donations are vital to our continued voter service activities. We are still short of our goal. If you have not yet donated, it is not too late to do so. If we all pitch in a little, we will have a successful Finance Drive and be prepared for a busy year of activities in 2011. Best wishes for the New Year!

Mary Giventer, Finance Drive Director

LWV Advocacy Activities

At the Modesto Farmer's Market on October 14 Susan Novak, Jean Tenney and Ann Krabach discussed the League's positions on the state ballot measures and distributed flyers.

Amy Wolfe presented LWVC recommendations to the Democratic Central Committee on October 21.

Ann Krabach, State and National Director

LWVCS Bylaws Revision

The Bylaws Revision Committee, comprised of Marie Bairey, Lynn Kelso, Carole Davis, Julie Saugstad, Marsha Waggoner, Virginia Lish and Susan Novak, was given the charge of reviewing the LWVSC bylaws. Rather than tweaking specific sections of the bylaws, the Committee has done a complete review and revision. Thinking this project would take many months, but also knowing that revisions had to be approved by our Board and LWVC before being presented to the members for approval, the Committee buckled down to the task. In two very productive meetings, the revised bylaws were in draft form.

Using models and wording provided by LWVC, the Committee examined each section of our current bylaws to make them compliant with California law for non-profits and consistent with our League's past practice. The result is a simpler, clearer and shorter document. The committee will present its recommendations to the LWVSC Board at its January meeting. If all goes well, the revised bylaws will be on the agenda for approval at our Annual Meeting in the spring.

If you have questions, contact Marie Bairey.

Voter Service

Seven forums were conducted by League of Women Voters of Stanislaus County for the fall elections. These were: Oakdale Mayor and City Council, Riverbank City Council, Turlock City Council, Superior Court Judge run-off, Yosemite Community College Trustees and two with candidates for appointment to the Modesto City Council.

Many of our members worked as moderators, question sorters, greeters, and timers to make the forums effective. Some helped with several forums. We want to thank all of the following people who participated to help bring information to the voters: Amy Wolfe, Marsha Waggoner, Mary Giventer, Diane Bartlett, Marjorie Brooks, Carmen Morad, Marge Lipsky, Julie Saugstad, Hannah Parris, Michele McNeil, Allan McKessick, Kate Weiner, Marjorie Brooks, Jean Tenney, Joan Patterson, Sara Jamison, Susan Novak, Marie Bairey, Sally Amaral, and Stella Beratlis.

We also thank AAUW members from Riverbank and Oakdale who helped with the forums in those cities. They were: Judy Kropp, Barbara Marquis, Marsha Love, Julie Reuben and Mary Wolgamot.

A presentation of the Pros and Cons of Ballot Propositions was co-sponsored with the MJC Civic Engagement Project. Members who volunteered for this event were; Allan McKessick, Mary Giventer, Ellen Dunbar, Hanna Renning, Ann Krabach, and Patty Beyer. We were assisted by MJC students from the Civic Engagement Project. Thanks to everyone for making this event a success.
